MORGAN LEWIS ELECTS 17 PARTNERS FIRMWIDE

1 Partner Elected in Princeton

Princeton - July 11, 2001 - Morgan Lewis, one of the 10 largest U.S. law firms, announced today that 17 lawyers have been elected firmwide to the partnership, and 1 was elected in Princeton. The partners-elect represent multiple practice areas including business and finance, employee benefits, energy, investment management, intellectual property, labor, litigation and real estate.

On October 1, 2001 Denis Segota will become a partner in the Princeton office. Segota is a member of the Business and Finance Practice Group. His practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, senior and mezzanine credit financing and venture capital financing, with particular expertise in leveraged buy-out transactions. He received his law degree from Rutgers University School of Law - Newark in 1992.

"The mix of rising partners reflects our steady growth across offices and practice groups," says Robert A. White, Princeton office manager partner. "Each of these lawyers has demonstrated outstanding legal abilities and superior client service as well as made significant contributions to the firm. We are very pleased to welcome them to the partnership."

With its growth and faster partnership track implemented last year, Morgan Lewis is positioned among top-tier law firms in recruiting, retaining and motivating exceptional lawyers. Morgan Lewis offers an attractive career path that enables lawyers to be considered for partnership as early as the end of their seventh year.
