WOMEN'S FUND OF NEW JERSEY HONORS
ACHIEVEMENTS OF MORGAN LEWIS ATTORNEY

Princeton, November 11, 2002 – Morgan Lewis, one of the nation's 10 largest law firms, announced today that Lynn Alejandro, an associate in its Business and Finance Practice, will be honored by the Women's Fund of New Jersey at its eighth Annual Awards ceremony on November 12, 2002, for her outstanding efforts in providing legal services to the technology industry.

The Women's Fund of New Jersey is a comprehensive and innovative source for organizations dedicated to improving the lives of women. Each year the Women's Fund honors women in a different field of business, and this year's award focuses on honoring women in technology.

"This is a terrific honor for Lynn, showcasing her work in the technology sector," said Steven M. Cohen, a partner in Morgan Lewis' Business Transactions Practice. "The Women's Fund is going a long way toward increasing the visibility of women as role models in New Jersey."

"I am honored to be recognized and proud to work among so many women who have contributed so much to the advancement of technology in New Jersey," Ms. Alejandro said. "I would like to thank Morgan Lewis and especially those individuals who have provided me with guidance, support and mentoring."

Ms. Alejandro's practice focuses on advising emerging growth companies, joint ventures, partnerships and limited liability companies, venture capital financing, mergers and acquisitions, and counseling clients on general corporate matters.

She is a member of the New Jersey Technology Council, the Women in Technology Advisory Board and the New Jersey Technology Council Public Policy Committee, and she serves as a mentor for girls with special needs at the New Jersey Regional Day School, Winslow Township.

Ms. Alejandro recently authored an article entitled, "Alternatives to Venture Capital Financing for New Jersey Technology Companies," for the Legal Eagle column of the New Jersey Tech News, and was coauthor of the article, "How to Become Touched by An Angel," for the New Jersey Capital Conference in 2001. She recently appeared as a guest speaker on a special edition of the television program, "New Jersey Business."
