MORGAN LEWIS PARTNER ADMITTED TO AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

Philadelphia-October 23, 2001-Marc J. Sonnenfeld, a Litigation partner in the Philadelphia office of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, has become a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. The College, which includes members from every segment of the civil and criminal trial bar of the United States and Canada, was created in 1950 to recognize excellence in trial lawyers.

In addition to identifying and recognizing outstanding trial lawyers, the purpose of the College is to improve the standards of trial practice, the administration of justice and the ethics of the profession. Invitation to membership is extended by the Board of Regents, the governing body of the College, only after careful examination of the nominee's experience, skill, ability and ethical standards. Mr. Sonnenfeld was inducted during the Fall Meeting of the College in New Orleans, LA on Saturday, October 20, 2001. Fellow Morgan Lewis Litigation partners Thomas M. Kittredge and James D. Pagliaro were also inducted into the College in recent years.

Mr. Sonnenfeld's practice focuses on securities and shareholder litigation and the defense of related regulatory enforcement proceedings. He was named one of the top ten business litigators in Philadelphia by The Best Lawyers in America, in the 1997-1998, the 1999-2000 and the 2001-2002 editions. He also serves on the national board of Trustees of the American Inns of Court. Mr. Sonnenfeld received his law degree from Harvard Law School in 1971 and served as a law clerk to the Honorable Joseph S. Lord, III, then Chief Judge of the US District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, in 1972.
