

WHO'S WHO LEGAL

David Asmus is recognised in the Who's Who Legal Awards

David Asmus of Morgan Lewis & Bockius LLP has been named Global Oil & Gas Lawyer of the Year in the 2013 Who's Who Legal Awards.

This is the fourth time he has been recognised, and he received more votes from clients and peers in the course of our research than any other individual worldwide.

The awards are based on a number of factors, including general feedback received in the research process, past performance in the research and the overall aggregate number of weighted votes cast in their favour.

The winners are formally announced in The International Who's Who of Business Lawyers 2013, a compendium edition of all the individual Who's Who Legal publications, which is released in June and covers 32 practice areas and over 100 countries.

Who's Who Legal lists only the leading lawyers in each field, based exclusively on the findings of an independent six-month research process that encompasses feedback from private practitioners, clients and other experts in the sector. It is impossible to buy entry into this publication, only lawyers who score most highly according to our independent international research criteria are listed.

The compendium edition is distributed free of charge to thousands of corporate counsel and private practice lawyers from around the world. The information is also available on www.WhosWhoLegal.com and is updated daily.

Who's Who Legal is official research partner of the International Bar Association and strategic research partner of the ABA Section of International Law. In 2012, Who's Who Legal's parent company Law Business Research was recognised for the second time by The Queen's Award for Enterprise in the area of international trade. These awards are the most prestigious a British company can receive.
