GLOBAL PUBLIC COMPANY ACADEMY

The Global Public Company Academy is a series of webinars designed to provide those who work with public companies (in-house counsel, directors, and executives) with comprehensive advice on matters relating to capital markets transactions; federal securities laws compliance; corporate governance; environmental, social, and governance (ESG) criteria; stakeholder engagement; executive, equity, and director compensation; and the ever-changing responsibilities of board members, as well as relevant litigation developments impacting public companies and companies intending to go public. The webinars bring together Morgan Lewis's securities, corporate governance, executive compensation, and litigation lawyers to cover updates on current developments impacting public companies.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This program is a good fit not only for legal, accounting, human resources, and corporate governance and compliance professionals at publicly held companies, but also others, including board members, who deal with or advise public companies or are otherwise subject to, or are involved in reviewing, public disclosure documents for these companies.

ABOUT THE SESSIONS

Each session in the Global Public Company Academy is self-contained so that you can pick topics of particular interest or relevance, or attend the entire series. The program is geared toward learning in an efficient and convenient format.*
