BUSINESS WITHOUT BORDERS

Singapore serves as a key gateway to the vast Asia-Pacific market, with our lawyers there serving clients throughout the region and globally, in countries such as China, Indonesia, Vietnam, Thailand, India, Myanmar, Australia, and New Zealand. In addition to English, many of them are also fluent or proficient in other languages that are vital for effective operations. Many are also qualified to practice in other jurisdictions, such as the UK, the US, and Australia.

INDUSTRIES WITHOUT LIMIT

Our Singapore lawyers assist clients in an immense range of industries, from banking and finance, commodities, construction, insurance, manufacturing, minerals, oil and gas, property, and shipping to telecommunications. Our work for them encompasses local and cross-border business transactions and finance and restructuring, asset management, dispute resolution, and international arbitration. We bring an intimate understanding of each industry's specific needs, including the regulatory, finance, litigation, and legal requirements within which they operate.

MERGERS & ACQUISITIONS

Highly recognized for its work in Mergers & Acquisitions, our team is consistently ranked among the top in Singapore and Asia. Having handled some of the most challenging and critical deals in recent years, our team leverages its ability to manage complex transactions, and provide cutting-edge and innovative solutions, always keeping clients' commercial objectives foremost in mind. Our lawyers regularly advise—often in the context of cross-border deals—on mandatory, voluntary, and partial offers; reverse takeovers; and change-of-control acquisitions, among others.

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION AND LITIGATION

Many of our Singapore lawyers are adept at handling arbitrations before major tribunals, including the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), the Singapore International Commercial Court (SICC), the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC), the United Nations Commission on International Trade Laws (UNCITRAL), and the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA). Morgan Lewis Stamford is a vital resource for corporations looking to handle disagreements efficiently in these venues.
